

Charlie Kranz

Charlie is a US-born Dublin-based actor.

His recent screen credits include the supporting role of 'Michael' in the Lionsgate superhero comedy feature "SUPERVIZED", the supporting role of 'Jeff' in writer/director Eamonn Murphy's film "A BETTER YOU" (currently in post-production), and as 'Russian Engineer' in the final season of History's VIKINGS.

Further screen credits include legal counsel 'Laurent Legault' in the thriller JUSTICE DOT NET (Ripple World Pictures), 'Lars' in AMC Television's martial arts drama INTO THE BADLANDS, 'Bob Tushy' in the comedy feature MISS CONCEPTION (with Heather Graham), 'Dominick Shaw' in the RTÉ medical drama THE CLINIC as well as roles in BATMAN BEGINS (Warner Brothers) and THE HONEYMOONERS (Paramount). Short film work includes the lead character in the 35mm Ancient Irish drama THE FORMORIAN, 'The Passenger' in Ian Power's award-winning short film THE TATTOO, and 'Agent Tripp' in the dark comedy THE DRAFT directed by Gary Shore (DRACULA UNTOLD).

Theatre credits include Vincent Woods' A CRY FROM HEAVEN at The Abbey Theatre (directed by Olivier Py), Rough Magic Seeds production of WOYZECK (nominated for Spirit of the Fringe Award), and the Irish Premieres of both THE LARAMIE PROJECT and FEATURING LORETTA for AboutFACE Ireland.

Voice work includes several RTÉ Radio Dramas: THE HAYMAKER, THE GUILTY HEART and RESPECT, and the animated short EAT THE DANGER.
